Alabama-Mississippi Chapter

Congratulates the Birmingham MS Leadership Class of 2011

The Birmingham MS Leadership Class campaign honors senior level professionals for their outstanding contributions to the business, civic and cultural betterment of the city. Each honoree is nominated by an Advisory Council as among the best and brightest in their field. Honorary Chairman, James A. Stewart, Attorney with Carr Allison Law Firm, presented each honoree with the prestigious Leadership Award at a reception on May 10th at Workplay. CBS 42 News Anchor Shanisty Myers served as emcee. We thank the 2011 Leadership Class members for their service to our community and for together raising over $108,000 to help the National MS Society mission to create a world free of MS.

Golden Leadership Circle Members ($4,100+ level)

These individuals raised $1 or more for each of the 4,100 persons in Alabama living with MS
